Copenhagen, Auguſt 21.

THE Ague ſeems now to have entirely left his Daniſh Majeſty: For theſe eight or ten Days paſt he has regularly miſſed his Fit; and it is hoped his Majeſty will ſoon Recover his former State of Health. King Staniſlaus has been acknowledged by this Court, King of Poland, in the ſame Manner as other Powers have done; and M. Berenſdorff, the Daniſh Envoy at Dreſden, has had Orders ſent to him, to the ſame Effect with Regard to King Auguſtus. M. During, who was Aide de Camp to the late King of Sweden, and afterwards received his Diſmiſſion from that Prince's Service, with the Character of Colonel; is now come hither, with a View, as it is generally ſuppoſed, of getting into Employment here.

Vienna, Aug. 25, N. S. A Courier arrived Yeſterday Morning with Letters from Count Kevenhuller of the 17th Inſtant, to acquaint this Court, that he had had a Conference on the 15th with M. de Noailles, and was to have another, which would be final, in a few Days; that every thing was preparing for the Evacuation of the Milaneze gradually by the French and Piedmonteſe Troops, and for a like gradual and ſucceſſive Entrance of the Imperialiſts. The King of Sardinia was for having the 30th fixed for putting the Troops into Motion; but M. de Noailles propoſed a ſhorter Day, and it is thought here, that the ſeveral Marches will be begun as this Day. There is Advice alſo by private Letters, that M. de Montemar has actually received Orders for a like Evacuation of Tuſcany, in Conſequence of what it is aſſured has been agreed upon with M. de Vaugrenant the French Miniſter in Spain, but Count Kevenhuller had had no Notice of it from either M. de Noailles or M. de Montemar. The long expected Courier from Muſcovy, who it is ſuppoſed may bring the Reſolutions of her Czariſh Majeſty with reſpect to the Terms upon which ſhe will be willing to treat with the Turks, is not yet arrived here; and we begin now to think, that the Muſcovites will not declare their Intentions upon that Head, till they ſhall ſee what Propoſals the Turks may be willing to make.

Hague, Sept. 7, N. S. The States of Holland will aſſemble on Wedneſday next, in order to diſpoſe of all the Civil and Military Employments that are vacant within their Province, as is uſually done at this Time of the Year. Count d'Uhlefeld, the Emperor's Miniſter, ſet out this Morning for Vienna, and will return within ſix Weeks, having Leave from his Court for no longer Time. M. Imberti ſets out on the 9th Inſtant for Venice. The Prince of Orange with his Conſort the Princeſs Royal, are expected here in a few Days.

Hanover, Sept. 4, N. S. Preparations are making here for a grand Hunting Match, which his Majeſty intends to take the Diverſion of, at a Place called Bahrenbruch, near Gifthorn, about five German Miles from hence, and to proceed from thence to the Gohrde.

Admiralty Office, July 2, 1736.

His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to eſtabliſh certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commiſſion and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: Theſe are to give Notice to all ſuch Widows, whoſe Husbands died on or ſince the 30th of Auguſt, 1732, that Copies of the ſaid Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy at Chatham, Portſmouth, and Plymouth, as alſo with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinſale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the ſaid Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpoſe: But ſuch Widows as live at too great a Diſtance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbet, Eſq; at the Admiralty Office, who will ſend them all neceſſary Information. And the Governours of the ſaid Charity intending to diſtribute ſome Relief to the Widows of ſuch Sea Officers who died before the 30th of Auguſt, 1732, and whoſe Circumſtances come within the Rules of the Eſtabliſhment; Theſe are to give Notice to all ſuch Widows, to repair or ſend to the above-mentioned Places, that they may be provided with the proper Certificates. And the Court of Aſſiſtants do hereby give Notice, that they ſhall meet at this Office on Tueſday the 14th of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, in order to receive and adjuſt the Claims of all ſuch Widows as ſhall be qualified according to the ſaid Rules and Orders.

Admiralty Office, Aug. 31, 1736.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty having received Advice, that on the 12th of May laſt, a Hoy, loaden with Seventeen Tuns of Portland Stone, and paſſing from Portland to Weymouth, was, by foul Weather, ſunk on the North Part of Portland Road, in about Seven or Eight Fathom Water; and that at low Tides, her Maſt appears about three Feet above Water; their Lordſhips have cauſed this publick Notice to be given thereof, to prevent, as far as may be, any Accident to Ships of Burthen coming to an Anchor in that Road.
